Jonathon Matthew Carriker began his scouting career as a cub scout in Pack 383 sponsored by the East 39th Street Congregation of the RLDS church. There, he progressed from Cub to Webelos scout where he earned the Arrow of Light award. He attended the district day camps and Webelos camp which helped him grow and develop and caused him to want to go on in the scouting tradition.

In April 1985, Jon joined Troop 383 of the same sponsoring institution.

There, Jon progressed from Scout (joining rank) to Star Scout. He served as patrol leader and attended scout camps. In 1986, Jon's family moved to Lee's Summit. The following year, Troop 366 was resurrected and Jon was a charter member of the newly reformed troop. He showed much leadership in helping the fledgling troop grow and served in the positions of Patrol Leader, Scribe, Senior Patrol Leader, and is currently serving as Quartermaster. Jon was inducted into the tribe of Mic-O-Say in 1988 and is now a Runner in the tribe. He has served 2 years on camp staff and is now looking forward to returning to camp with his own troop. For his Eagle Service Project, Jon chose to assist wildlife development by building wood duck boxes for James A. Reed Wildlife Refuge.

Matt Earnest

Matthew Earnest became a scout in March 1995 in Boy Scout Troop 381 sponsored by the Parkview RLDS church. He obtained the rank of Tenderfoot in 1995, 2nd Class and 1st Class in 1996, Star in 1997 and Life in 1998. In the summer of 1997 Matt became a Foxman. At camp in 1998 Matt became a Brave in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say and took the name Bow Boy, a name given to him previously in a naming ceremony by the late Sioux Chief Nulan Dion. In 1999 Matt served on the camp staff in camp Sawmill at the H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation at which time he became a Warrior, then a Firebuilder in the Tribe. Again in 2000, Matt served on the camp staff, this time as Indian Village instructor for the Program Ranger Staff where he earned his Tom-Tom Beater and Runner in the Tribe. He was also named Junior Staff of the year by the ranger staff for outstanding performance. In 2000 he also attended Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico which he considers to be one of his greatest memories in Scouting. Matt is the current Senior Patrol Leader of Troop 381.
